

FRENCH RIVIERA, NICE, COTE D'AZUR

5 Days 4 Nights

1

With its mix of real-city life, old-world opulence, year-round sunshine, vibrant street life and stunning seaside location, no place in France compares with Nice.

The city of Nice is a UNESCO World Heritage Site because of its beauty, history, architecture and natural spaces.

At a glance, you can see why it is called "Nissa La Bella".

"The queen of the French Riviera, Nice drips elegance and panache from every belle époque palace, baroque chapel and Mediterranean-blue chair on the prom. The capital of France's celebrity-stalked Côte d'Azur might be modest in size, but the choice of things to see and do in this iconic coastal town stretches well beyond bracing strolls along Promenade des Anglais and lizard-lounging on bum-numbing pebbles on the seashore.

Greek-founded settlement and wildly popular modern seaside hub.

Flagship events such as the Nice Jazz Festival in July

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Explore this exceptional urban ensemble of 522 hectares:
PLACE MASSÉNA
The heart of Nice with the pedestrian zone, the Carré d'Or and its luxury boutiques, the musicians' district, Avenue Jean Médecin, and the Promenade du Paillon, a veritable green lung in the city centre.
The Libération district, its fish market. Visit also the Gare du Sud, a place of life and festivity that nestles behind a sublime historical façade.
Other exceptional gems: Russian Orthodox Cathedral of Saint Nicholas, Cimiez hills, its arenas and gardens.
VIEUX NICE
wander around the narrow, winding alleyways of Nice's old town
the centrepiece COURTS SALEYA remains a massive market square flower market
Baroque aficionados... architectural gems: CATHÉDRALE STE-RÉPARATE
16 th century CHAPELLE DE LA MISÉRICORDE
17 th century PALAIS LASCARIS, a frescoed riot of Flemish tapestries, faience
PROMENADE DES ANGLAIS
most famous stretch of seafront in Nice: vast paved promenade, which gets its name from the English expat patrons who paid for it in 1822. It runs for the whole 4km sweep of the Baie des Anges Along the way, keep an eye out for a few of the promenade's landmarks: Hôtel Negresco, the art-deco Palais de la Méditerranée and Niçoise sculptor Sabine Géraudie's giant iron sculpture La Chaise de SAB which pays homage to the city's famous blue-and-white beach chairs.
The entire coastline, from the Promenade des Anglais to the foot of Mont Boron. All this while passing by the Quai des États-Unis, the Quai Rauba Capeù, and the Port of Nice.
In 2021 the city of Nice is enlisted under UNESCO World Heritage status.
COLLINE DU CHÂTEAU
climb the winding staircases up to this wooded outcrop of the old town to get the best views over Nice's red-tiled rooftops. Tour Bellanda remains from this Medieval Castle.
At the top you'll find plenty of green space and a wealth of stunning views over the old town, the port and inland to the Provençal hills all the way to the Alps. The shady trees offer welcome respite on a blazing hot day, and there's also an artificial waterfall built during the 18th century.
MUSEUMS &amp; MARKET
Musée Masséna	Musée Matisse	Musée d'Art Moderne d'Art Contemporain	Musée National Marc Chagall	Cours Saleya Markets

QUAI DES PONCHETTES

CASTLE OF TOURRETTE-LEVENS: Located at the tip of a rocky spur and dominating the village, the castle is the symbol of the medieval past of the commune.

RUE OBSCURE: Located along the first rampart, the rue Obscure (14th century) was at first uncovered and constituted the continuity of the defensive roundabout. It is 130m long. Four doors allowed access to the city, one of which is always visible: the Portal Robert. It was registered in the Historic Monuments in 1932. In the Old Town.

LE PORT ROYAL DE LA DARSE - VILLEFRANCHE-SUR-MER: In 1713 onwards they carried the title King of Sardinia and the Darse thus became a "Royal Port". Lighthouse, dry-dock basin, arsenal, forge, prison, rope factory and officers' barracks. Today, it is a marina that has managed to preserve the legacy of its history. Since February 1990, the Royal Port of "Darse" has been listed in the Historic Monuments Inventory.

OBSERVATOIRE DE LA CÔTE D'AZUR: Built by Charles Garnier, it is home to Europe's largest mobile dome, designed by Gustave Eiffel. UNIVERSARIUM: Travel from the Big Bang to the heart of the stars, test your knowledge of the solar system, live an immersive experience where you will travel through the universe.

CUISINE NISSARDE

In Nice, gastronomy is so important that Nice cuisine has its own quality label.

Each labeled establishment guarantees excellence and ancestral recipes. So let yourself be tempted by an authentic Niçoise salad, small stuffed dishes, pan bagnat or ravioli à la daube. And what would an aperitif be without a nice slice of socca to accompany it. Beware, you are not allowed to end your holiday without having tasted the traditional sweet chard pie.

Nice Côte d'Azur has hundreds of restaurants... enjoy fish, salads and local specialties on the beach, or perched from a roof-top..

For gourmets, explore unexpected flavors at one of the many starred restaurants. In total, some 15 restaurants open the doors to haute gastronomy. Among them, the Chèvre d'Or** in Eze, Flaveur** in Nice, the Saint-Martin* in Vence, the Chantecler* at the Negresco hotel.

WINES: Discover the wines of Nice Côte d'Azur. Visit the area's magnificent wine estates and immerse yourself in the art of grape growing

Did you Know?

Dans les années 20, la riche américaine Irène Bretz est la propriétaire du Negresco et du château de Crémat, où elle organise des soirées dont Gabrielle Chanel était l'une des invitées

« En voyant les deux C qui signifient "château" et "Crémat", la jeune couturière aurait eu le coup de cœur et aurait demandé à sa propriétaire de s'en inspirer pour sa marque. Cette histoire n'a jamais pu être complètement vérifiée mais les similitudes sont flagrantes »
