

ANDALUSIA & TOLEDO

5 Days, 4 Nights

More than 800 kilometers of coastline, two National Parks and cities such as Seville, Cordoba or Granada, are the letter of presentation of Andalucía, but this land is much more. Discover the essential places you should not miss! Córdoba, this mountainous landscape is home to a varied fauna. The province still bears traces of its Iberian, Roman and Muslim past; it is rich in traditions, architectural heritage, and gastronomy.

Córdoba's Guadalquivir river, cereal plains, grapevines, olive trees; the mountainous Subbética range, limestone soils, feature white villages and noble towns with well-conserved Baroque architecture..

Seville is a mosaic of cultures: Guadalquivir river basin, Sierra Morena mountains, marshes of the Doñana Nature Reserve, lush Mediterranean vegetation, fighting bulls, extensive wetlands, birdlife sanctuary, monumental cities ...which are living testimony to a historic past of unparalleled splendor. Its art and folklore make this an exceptional tourist destination.

Granada is music and poetry, monuments which are pure art, and ancient culture. Granada's craggy summits of the Sierra Nevada mountains, breathtaking architecture, white villages scattered across hills and valleys ...is a great historic and cultural value - a tourist destination par excellence.

Toledo is truly one of Spain's most magnificent cities. Dramatically sited atop a gorge overlooking the Rio Tajo, it was known as the 'city of three cultures'- Christian, Muslim and Jewish communities peacefully coexisted. ..Horseshoe-arched mosques, Sephardic synagogues and one of Spain's finest Gothic cathedrals cram into its dense historical core.
